Rock 'n' Roll Diner

With a light American style supper!

11, 13 & 14 May - 7.30pm

£8.50/£7.50 (inc supper)

Following the success of last years “Supper Club Cabaret” we are continuing with the same popular format. We will be transporting you back to the 50’s & 60’s to a traditional American diner, where you will experience the music and dining recipes from that era.

The root of 50’s was the big swing bands, rhythm combo’s, rockability from Memphis and some Texas Swing. Towards the end of the 50’s, the Blues from Mississippi added to this mix.

The 60’s were defined by four pockets of music: East Coast DooWop and Girl groups, R&B and Soul; California Surf instrumentals, and Motown. And in 1963, the British invaded with “rock” in the form of the Beatles, or officially by “the Fab Four” in Feb 1964. – resulting in many Brit sounding US bands; and the “Summer of Love” in 1967. It all changed after Woodstock in 69, and the breakup of the Beatles and The Supremes.

See and hear hits of Elvis, Chuck Berry, Buddy Holly, The Supremes and The Drifters to name but a few! With Songs such as Jailhouse Rock, C’mon Everybody, Da Doo Ron Ron, Rock Around The Clock, Heartbeat, Can’t Hurry Love, Save The Last Dance For Me, and Stand By Me.

Menu

The diner wagon originated after the depression in North West USA (50’s), and one of the most traditional menu’s was:

Triple Decker Club

Chicken, bacon, lettuce & tomato 3-layer sandwich; with a pickle, onion ring and herbed potatoes.

Vegetarian option available

Ice Cream Sundae

Vanilla ice cream, chocolate sauce, chopped nuts, marshmallows, whipped cream and a cherry on top.
