A note from the director...

What time is it? It's Pantomime time. Oh yes, it is .....Hanham Players are proud to present Snow White & the Seven Dwarfs for their 2018 Pantomime. Snow White is near the top of the most popular pantomime list, side by side with such titles as Aladdin, Cinderella, Mother Goose and Jack & the Beanstalk.

As with all pantomimes there are challenges and to find seven children to play the dwarfs all with speaking roles is no easy task, but our Youth Drama Section came up trumps, as you will see. The children have been absolutely fabulous. Our Youth Group, as a whole, has once again had a huge input into the Pantomime and I would like to thank Charlotte for all her help and dedication in getting our young people ready for this production, as well as all her other countless roles. My job would be impossible without her massive contribution.

I have had the pleasure, again this year to perform as the Dame and it will mark my 35th role as Pantomime Dame, 24 with the Hanham Players, performing with a cast of very experienced and talented actors, and as well as some fairly new to the genre. We always enjoy introducing new people to the magic of Pantomime.

I would also like to thank Charlotte and Kevin in their "behind the scenes" capacity for their support and expert technical knowledge in set design/construction, lighting and sound to bring this production to the stage. Not forgetting their valuable team of Andy, Ria and Ian with our latest addition, James. You don't often see them but we couldn't do without their scenery construction and set changing ability, energy, good humour and commitment. They must hold a Guinness World Record for rolling up a back cloth. Backstage we have also had the help of Iain, Nick and Dylan who all have children performing in the Panto.

A personal thank you to Louise and Paul who helped enormously with the adult costumes.

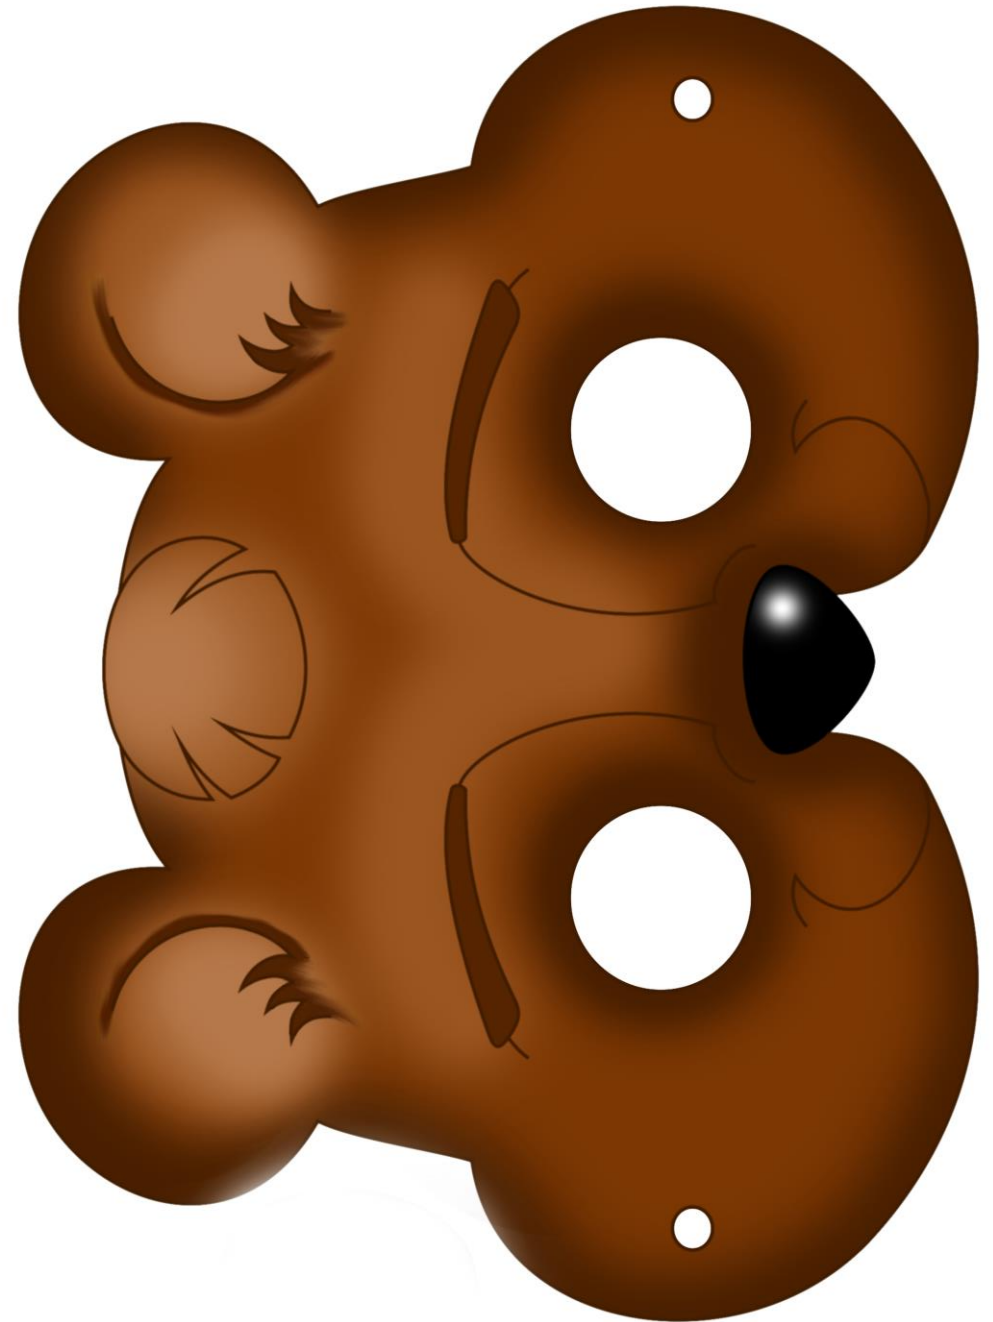

Also a massive thank you to our musicians Natalie and Owen, for all their musical support and professionalism, another superb team who make this Pantomime as good as it is and my job so much easier. We must not forget all the mums and dads who look after the children behind the scenes and our Front of House team, they are the first people seen by the public and perform a marvellous job for us, thank you all.

Finally, a huge thank you to you, our patrons and supporters without whom we could not perform and satisfy our theatrical aspirations. Please enjoy Snow White as much as we have in presenting it.

David Pascoe-Clark

More panto fun...

Cut out the mask and join the picnic...

Interested in joining?

If you fancy having a go at acting, directing or working backstage in some capacity, do please come along on a Wednesday evening at 8pm. We are always looking for newcomers, the more the merrier and a full cast/crew means an exciting and vibrant production. All information regarding the club is on our website, or you can contact our club secretary.

Hanham Players...

Our next production on 9-12 May 2018 is a comedy play by Ray Cooney, Run For Your Wife. The story concerns London cab driver John Smith, with two wives, two lives and a very precise schedule for juggling them both, with one wife at home in Streatham and another at home in Wimbledon.

Trouble brews when Smith is mugged and ends up in hospital, where both of his addresses surface, causing both the Streatham and Wimbledon police to investigate. Having upset his schedule, Smith becomes hopelessly entangled in his attempts to explain himself to his wives and two suspicious police officers, with help from his lazy layabout neighbour upstairs in Wimbledon. Check our website or Facebook pages for more information soon.

Hanham Players Youth Group...

Our next production is in June 2018, please come along and support us. Keep checking the website.
