First presented by the New Perspectives Theatre Group in Dec 1997 to Feb 98, and since at the Queen's Theatre and Windsor Theatre from Aug to Oct 2005.

Adapted by Phillip Goulding from the 1953 Ealing comedy film about a group of villagers who, finding that their branch railway line is about to be axed, decide to buy and run the railway themselves. As well as convincing the railway authorities that they are competent to work the line, they have to face problems from Vernon Crump who is set on providing a competitive bus service.

"A big, gallant dollop of imagination, Engaging comedy. A happy evening" - Daily Mail

"I found its dottiness an almost constant pleasure. For collectors of cherishable English comedy, this enjoyable chaotic show is a real find. First Class" - Daily Telegraph

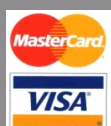

Wheelchairs must be booked in advance, as they cannot be accommodated on the night.
Regrettably these cannot be booked online.
